

UniSport Australia Guideline

Football

Men and Women

UniSport Australia (UniSport) football competitions are conducted in accordance with the Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) Laws of the Game 2023-24, except where these differ from UniSport competition guidelines; in which case the latter shall take precedence. Reference should also be made to the UniSport Guideline Breach of Competition Requirements for penalties related to breaches.

1. Team/squad size

- Minimum registered players – 14
- Maximum registered players – 19
- Maximum cross registration – 3
- Minimum number of players that can take the field without incurring a forfeit – 7, including a goalkeeper

2. Competition format

2.1. Substitutions/interchange

- a) A maximum of eight substitutes and three team officials may be named for each match.
- b) Each team may make up to eight substitutions made on a maximum of five separate occasions (including half-time) during the match. Interchanges are permitted (players allowed to return to the field after being substituted).
- c) Only eligible players and team officials named for each match are permitted to be within the technical area.

2.2. Game duration

- a) All matches will be two x 30 minutes with five minutes for half time.
- b) There will be a maximum of two minutes additional time allowed in each half if deemed necessary by the referee.

2.3. Pool points scoring

Points scoring for each match shall be awarded as follows:

- a) Winning team: 3 points
- b) Drawn match: 2 points per team
- c) Losing team: 1 point
- d) Forfeited team: 0 points

2.4. Pool tiebreakers

In the event that two or more teams finish equal on points at the conclusion of the pool stage, the following criteria will be used to separate the teams:

- a) Highest goal difference
- b) Highest number of goals scored
- c) Head to head result(s) between the teams concerned
- d) Coin toss

2.5. Drawn matches

- a) If pool matches are drawn at full time, both teams will be awarded two points as per section 2.3.
- b) If scores are level at the end of normal time in progression or placing matches, two extra periods of 10 minutes duration shall be played.
- c) If scores are still level after extra time, kicks from the penalty mark as outlined in the Laws of the Game shall take place to determine the winner.

3. Misconduct

3.1. Accumulation of cautions

- a) If a player or team official is cautioned (yellow card) three times during the preliminary pool stage of the competition, they shall be suspended for one (1) match.
- b) If a player or team official is sent off (red card) indirectly (i.e. two yellow cards), then the individual cautions are expunged and do not accumulate as listed in 3.1.a.

- c) If a player or team official receives a caution in a match and is subsequently sent off directly, then the caution shall accumulate as listed in 3.1.a.
- d) After the preliminary pool stage all individual cautions shall be expunged, with the exception that any suspension incurred due to a caution received in the final pool match shall be served in the team's next match.
- e) No further accumulation of cautions shall apply during the progression stage of the competition.

3.2. Send offs

- a) Players sent from the field or team officials removed from the technical area during the current match shall leave the vicinity of the field of play and will not be permitted in the technical area for the remainder of that match.
- b) Players or team officials who have been suspended will not be permitted in the technical area or the vicinity of the field of play during the period of their suspension.
- c) Players or team officials who are dismissed whilst the match is under the jurisdiction of the referee shall be suspended by the Competition Manager in accordance with the Table of Offences listed in the Football Australia (FA) National Disciplinary Regulations \(2021-22\).
- d) If a player or team official is sent off directly for a second time in the same competition, an additional one (1) match shall be added to their suspension. If a player or team official is sent off directly for a third time in the same competition, an additional two (2) matches shall be added to their suspension, and so on.
- e) If there is no perimeter fence surrounding the field of play, players or team officials sent off or suspended shall not be within 10 metres of the field of play.

4. Team duties

4.1. Team duty requirements for football are:

- a) In the absence of officially appointed assistant referees, one person from each team in the current match may be required to fulfil the duties of an assistant referee, as advised by the referee.

4.2. The person fulfilling the team duty requirements can be any competent person associated with that team or university and does not necessarily have to be a player e.g. team manager.

5. Uniform requirements

5.1. In addition to the requirements outlined by the FIFA Laws of the Game \(Law 4\), the following items are required:

- a) Numbers are compulsory on the back of the shirt and optional for the front of the shirt and shorts.

5.2. If the two competing teams are wearing colours that make it difficult to distinguish them from each other, it is the responsibility of the second mentioned team to change. If no alternate colours are available, then it is permissible for the second mentioned team to wear bibs.

6. Forfeits, delays & abandonments

6.1. A forfeit will be declared 10 minutes after the scheduled start of play where either team is unable to commence play.

6.2. The forfeit score is three (3) goals to nil (0).

6.3. Should the commencement of a game be delayed due to no fault of either team (as determined by the competition management or UniSport), the game shall be played in its full duration if possible. If full game duration is not possible, the recommended game duration will need to be agreed upon by both teams. If resolution between the teams is not possible then the competition manager (or their delegate) will make the final decision regarding match format, which will not be subject to appeal.

6.4. In the event of a match being abandoned due to no fault of either team, the UniSport Guideline Abandonment of Sporting Competitions will be implemented.
